Agreement: By signing this Sponsorship Agreement (the "Agreement") below, you attest that you are a representative of your organization and all of its employees ("Sponsor") and are legally authorized to execute this Agreement; and that the Sponsor agrees to indemnify and hold California Lutheran University ("CLU"), its affiliated organizations, their Regents, officers, agents, and employees harmless from any liability, loss or damage the Sponsor may suffer as a result of activities to be carried out pursuant to the obligations of this Agreement; and that you have read and understand the definition of advertising as defined in IRC 26 CFR §1.513-4(c)(2)(v) ("Advertising"); and attest on behalf of the Sponsor that the Sponsor will refrain from conduct that could be interpreted as Advertising during all activities and events associated with this Agreement ("Events"); and agree and accept that interpretation of Advertising is and will be at the sole discretion of CLU; and agree and accept that conduct at Events deemed to be Advertising may result in the treatment of all funds received in association with this Agreement as non-charitable revenue.

Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Title 26 CFR  $\S1.513-4(c)(2)(v)$  reads: Advertising. For purposes of this section, the term advertising means any message or other programming material which is broadcast or otherwise transmitted, published, displayed or distributed, and which promotes or markets any trade or business, or any service, facility or product. Advertising includes messages containing qualitative or comparative language, price information or other indications of savings or value, an endorsement, or an inducement to purchase, sell, or use any company, service, facility or product. A single message that contains both advertising and an acknowledgment is advertising. This section does not apply to activities conducted by a payor on its own. For example, if a payor purchases broadcast time from a television station to advertise its productduring commercial breaks in a sponsored program, the exempt organization's activities are not thereby converted to advertising.
